PETITIONING THE COURT

To incorporate the violation(s) contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violation(s) previously reported to the Court on 09/05/2023.

On August 23, 2023, the conditions of supervision were reviewed with Mr. Bacon relative to his judgment in case number 2:22CR00083-TOR-1. He signed his judgment acknowledging his understanding of his conditions of supervision.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
4	Mandatory Condition #1: You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.

Supporting Evidence: It is alleged, on or about August 26, 2023, Mr. Bacon violated his conditions of supervised release by committing third degree theft - shoplifting (attempted), in violation of R.C.W. 9A.56.050.

According to a police report filed by the Spokane County Sheriff's Office for case number 2023-91001120, on August 26, 2023, a male (later identified as Loran Bacon ) and a female parked in a disabled parking space at Mel's, a clothing store located in Spokane, Washington. Mr. Bacon was driving a green Pontiac Grand Prix.

Mr. Bacon got out of the vehicle, entered the store, and grabbed several articles of clothing. He left the store without paying and started loading the items into his vehicle. A customer began taking photos of the theft and Mr. Bacon then dropped the items, got into his vehicle and fled the area.

The owner of the store indicated that approximately $600 worth of items was attempted to be stolen, but were recovered. A photo was observed by the officer who saw Mr. Bacon with several items of clothing in his hand near his vehicle.

Mr. Bacon was previously contacted by law enforcement in the same vehicle and the officer used a recent booking photo to identify him as the suspect. Probable cause was developed to charge Mr. Bacon with third degree theft (attempted).

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court to incorporate the violation(s) contained in this petition in future proceedings with the violation(s) previously reported to the Court.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
